

Ismail El Gizouli CV

Ismail Abdel Rahim El Gizouli is an Energy and Environment Specialist with a B.Sc. in Mathematic and Physics from the University of Khartoum, Sudan 1971 and an M.Sc. in Operation Research & Statistics, University of Aston, in Birmingham, U.K., 1980.

He has more than 37 years experience in industry, energy planning & strategies, policy studies, demand management, information systems, bioenergy, renewable energy technologies (RETS), institutional capacity building, environment, climate change inventory, vulnerability, adaptation, mitigation and sustainable development.

He started his professional career in 1971 with the Sudan Ministry of Industry. He joined the Ministry of Energy in 1980, becoming Director of the National Energy Administration (the planning arm of the ministry) 1988-1992. He worked as a freelancer and conducted many consultancies for the African Development Bank, World Bank, UNEP, FAO and African Energy Policy Research Network (AFREPRN). In 1998 he joined The Higher Council for Environment and Natural Resources in Sudan as a consultant on all UNDP-Government joint climate change projects.

He has participated in many international, regional and national conferences, meetings and symposiums in industry planning, sustainable development, energy, environment and climate change.

He has published many papers and is one of four authors of two energy-related books published by ZED Books England. He also contributed as Review Editor to many IPCC Reports including Safeguarding the Ozone Layer and the Global Climate System, Carbon Dioxide Capture and Storage (Main Report and Technical Summary), Working Group III contribution to the Fourth Assessment Report (Mitigation of Climate Change) and Fourth Assessment Synthesis Report. He was a member of the IPCC Bureau from 2002 to 2008, and was re-elected in September 2008 for another term 2008-2015.

He was Vice-Chair of the Facilitative Branch of the Compliance Committee of the UNFCCC 2005- 2007 and he is the Chair of the Facilitative Branch and Co-Chair of the Compliance Committee of UNFCCC 2007-2009.